“ To the McCoy Family:

We would like to express our Condolences to you for the loss of your mother. We knew Marie for a short time, but she made us feel like we had known her longer. We were both born in Amboy and shared some common interests with Marie and her knowledge of families in Amboy.

*Our thoughts are with you and we will keep Marie in our prayers.

“ Marie was a beautiful person that through the years has been so thoughtful to my family. I remember being at the McCoy farm near Walton and spending the night there as a child and feeling very comforted by this wonderful lady with this large family. She truly lived her faithfulness and her radiant smile and sense of humor brought so much peace to others. Though it has been many years since I have seen her children, I still treasure those carefree, childhood days. Blessings to all of you.

“ We want to express our deepest sympathy to you all on the death of your mother. Marie was a special person-cheerful, thoughtful, and caring. She brightened the day of all who came in contact with her. She exemplified what it means to "live one's faith" and her belief was manifest in her actions throughout the time I knew her. She was a role model of generosity, acceptance and kindness. We (I, Diane, Alice, and Amy) had the good fortune to visit her a few weeks ago. Other than the usual "slowing down" that accompanies advanced age, her humor, wit, and intelligence were manifest. She was most proud of her family and the many years of loving relationship with her husband Bill. I will miss her greatly.

“ We visited Marie a few weeks ago and are so happy that we had an opportunity to spend time together. We laughed, we cried, we heard wonderful stories and shared a meal. Marie was at peace with herself and her God, and ready to leave this world. Maybe we weren't so ready to say goodbye, but we will always cherish her wonderful smile and the impact she had on so many lives.

Marie, we miss you and love you and know that Bill met you at the door.
