“ Every once in a while when I still lived in Dixon I would encounter Mrs. Cooper. EVERY ONE OF THOSE TIMES she would greet me with a BIG smile, and always then (with her natural upbeat, laughing demeanor) Mrs. Cooper would tell me about the latest "adventures" of her children Diane and Richard of whom she was quite (and justifiably) soooo proud. I ALWAYS felt better having encountered Mrs. Cooper who unfailingly would tell me how enjoyable Diane found her experiences in my DHS Journalism class and in Diane's Dixini high school newspaper student publication roles. I ALWAYS came away from these encounters thinking what fun it probably was to grow up in Mrs. Cooper's family! My sympathy to the Cooper family.
