“ Mrs. Quest and Marty's Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy on Marty's passing. I remember Marty from school, beginning with Maytown. In first grade he gave me the largest Easter basket that I have ever received; then or since. He always was a gentleman with a friendly smile. I saw Mrs. Quest at the Depot Days parade this summer when I was in town visiting and she told me that Marty was on a bench nearby and to go see him. After not seeing Marty for many years, we visited and he told me that he always remembered we were the youngest in our class from first grade through high school. I am glad that I had the opportunity to see him. I am certain that he will be missed by many.

“ My greatest memory of Marty is the winters of snowmobiling at Grandma Mary's in Ohio. How there would be dozens of snowmobiles lined up outside the back door, with snow suits & boots tossed in the corner at the door ready for another run!

“ My deepest sympathy to all. I was fortunate to have gotten to see and talk with Marty a couple of times during last year. He was always so much fun to talk with and to reminisce with about the good ole days at Amboy High. Rest in Peace Marty!

“ Marty was such a super nice guy! he came to me a few years ago when I was at Morts Tap... great story... he asked if I was Rich Bumbas daughter, I said yes "the youngest one" lol... always smiling he said .. your dad was the best and continued on about my dad. every time after that we always chatted. FRIENDS FOR LIFE he became. one time he was at Morts and I called my dad and passed the phone to Marty, they shared some obviously funny stories I could tell. Thank you Marty for coming into my life. Your infectious smile will never be forgotten. RIP.
