“ The city and area has lost a good person, Marvin hoerner was legend with the country music field. He, at one time managed and promoted country music stars all over the country. Surprized?? He also had a C and W radio program on WSDR weekly for years. Marvin was a real backer for Amboy volunteerism. He and I staged, directed and gathered other volunteers for the Firemans stage plays and Farmers Round Up. His later life was devoted to his antique shop and reporting the history of our favorie town. How lucky we are to have known him.
