

Mary Theresa Parsons

September 7, 1946 - August 8, 2024

Mary Theresa Fassler Parsons, 77, of Romeoville, passed away peacefully Thursday, August 8, 2024, at Silver Cross Hospital in New Lenox, IL.

Theresa was born September 7, 1946, in Dixon, IL, the eldest of eight children born to Walter and Mary(Ackert) Fassler. On February 18, 1979, she married Charles Parsons III who preceded her in death in 2019.

Growing up on the farm, Theresa was active in 4H and became an excellent seamstress, going to the State Fair twice for her garments. She was also an accomplished cook and baker and loved being a mother. Her special joy in life, however, was being a grandmother.

She graduated from Midwest College of Commerce in Peoria, IL, subsequently working for Ozark and TWA Airlines. More recently she worked at RR Donnelly in customer service until her retirement.

Theresa was preceded in death by her husband, her parents and her brother Thomas E. Fassler.

She is survived by three daughters: Tara Parsons of Bolingbrook; Tiffany Coody (Steven) of Hinesville, GA; Tanya Parsons-Novak of Port Charlotte, FL; grandchildren Jaden Childress, Maitaya Childress, Elizabeth Coody and Desiree Parsons-Perez; siblings Carl (Debbie)Fassler, Bob (Cindy) Fassler, Fran (Raeann) Fassler, Patti (Mark) Jordan all of Dixon, Tony (Berta) Fassler of Mt. Morris and Peggy (Mark) Menke of Healy, Alaska; sister-in-law Sue Fassler of Sublette, along with many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Monday, August 19, 2024, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Dixon, from 9:30 until 10:30 a.m. with the rosary being recited at 10:00 a.m.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10:30 a.m. officiated by Rev. John Evans with burial following at Oakwood Cemetery in Dixon.

A memorial has been established to Shining Star Children's Advocacy in Dixon

Arrangements were completed by Jones Funeral Home in Dixon.

“ May God bless the soul of Theresa and may he bring comfort, wonderful memories, peace and appreciation of a devoted, serving and loving Mother and Grandmother. May Tara, Tanya and Tiffany honor her life and love by their own lives and decisions. Rest in peace Theresa and if you see my mom say 'hello' from me. Peace be with her family and friend.
