“ Sending condolences and Prayers for healing and for Vonna’s full recovery.

I remember Mike and Vonna and their family’s presence during different times in life but one memory that stands out was seeing the two of them and giving them both hugs at my brother’s memorial service a couple of years ago. The kindness and compassion they expressed to me that day somehow stood out when so much about that difficult day was a blur. Many people have told me they talked to me that day but I don’t remember because I was still in such deep shock and grief. For some reason, I remember the kindness and compassion I felt from Mike and Vanna. I send prayers that your family will hold one another in compassion and be held by others with compassion and that you’ll remember the good times and the blessings of your family memories. We are all more than our most difficult moments. I’m so sorry for your loss and the pain Vanna and your family are experiencing on many levels. Prayers for healing to all of you.
