“ We read of your father's death in last night's paper, and are sending our sincere condolences to you and the rest of the Massey family. Losing a father is never easy, and losing him at such an early age makes it especially difficult for you and his grandchildren. We wish you well. Gerry and Karen

“ I offer my condolences to Mike's family on his passing. Up until late last year, I had worked with Mike at Etnyre's for about 16 years. He was a great guy. Mike was always willing to lend a helping hand and give you a little heck at the same time, which always made the job a little more fun. I have fond memories of Mike and will miss his jovial personality.

My prayers are with all of you. God bless.
