“ I was assistant coach for my sons flag football team this season, just a couple weeks ago another coach and I were talking about how we would play full on tackle football in our very early twenties and late teens no pads and Mike came up cause he was part of the gang, I had brought up how Mike played on my Jr. Tackle team when we were kids and had to come all the way from polo. Mike and I had a ton of laughs together from Jr. tackle on through high school into being adults. He had a really good heart and always had people smiling and laughing around him. I'm so sorry for your loss. I will definitely miss Mike.

“ I'm remembering the last time you came and sat outside my Mom's and I told you the dog was sick. The way you just wrapped your arms around her and she just layed there and leaned into you as you continued to pet and comfort her. She didn't like males and had very often snapped at many, but she just let you. She passed shortly after but I'm glad we, she, was able to take a moment of comfort that she was willing to receive and seeing that moment let me know you would have been great at that dream you had. ☐ Rest in Heaven
