“ While I don't recall meeting your mom Anne, I know how committed you were to her. I'm so very sorry for your loss of your mom. May you somehow find comfort that she no longer suffers and is finally been made whole again, healthy and care free. Prayers be with you and your family at this most difficult time. Hugs to you my friend. My thoughts are with you.

“ I met Nancy when her family moved to Oregon and she enrolled in St Mary’s grade school. I was so happy to find out we lived just a few blocks away from each other on 2nd street. I told her cheerleading tryouts were coming up so we practiced and practiced. Of course, she made the squad and I didn’t but that didn’t hurt our friendship. Somehow, Nancy always remained surprised and humble even when she went on to high school and was cheerleader, and homecoming queen, etc. We had our fights like all teenaged girls do but we always made up. During our grade school and high school years we enjoyed many trips to Chicago with Mary Jo, many sleepovers, double dates, and our group pot lucks. Unfortunately, after high school, I moved away, got married right away and we drifted apart.

I didn’t get to know Nancy’s children growing or all her struggles. We did finally get to meet again at the Pines when our group of high school friends got together each year. She was going to school to get her masters degree. I so admired her for that. I looked forward to our get together at the Pines and for an hour or two, we were kids again. The last time we saw each other was in October 2019. We didn’t get to talk much because we were sitting at opposite ends of the table. After lunch, when it was time for us to leave , disappointed that we didn’t get to talk, we swore that we would sit together next time so we could catch up! I’ll hold you to that promise dear friend! Until we meet again!

My sympathies go out to your family because they have lost someone very special but they were also very blessed because you were in their lives!

Rest In Peace dear friend!

“ I am deeply saddened by Nancy's passing, She was one of the kindest souls I ever have met. Even though years had passed since I had last seen her she remained a dear friend in my heart. I remember so many good times we used to have together, going to the mountains, playing cards, laughing over a couple of beers. My Sue and I both loved her. Jason and Annie I know this is a painful loss, I wish I could be there to give you each a hug. Today I'll listen to some Fleetwood Mac, (her favorite back in the day) to honor her. I will be thinking about her with a heavy heart and a smile only face. Tommy, Jerry and Robin, sending love and light your way.
