“ I have so many wonderful memories of Ned. From the time I was a kid through the 20 years I worked with him at Pratt's. The thing I will remember most about Ned is how much he loved to laugh! Whether he was the instigator or brunt of a joke, he always laughed!

“ With deepest sympathy to the Ely families. My dad worked with Ned for many years at the Henry Pratt Company. Their relationship extended outside the workplace into a close friendship. My Mom and Dad enjoyed the company of Ned and Carol on many trips either eating out or going to the boat.

“ With Deepest Sympathy to Carol, Lori, Doug, Brian, Gary and Renee. Also to your families. Ned will be greatly missed by all of you, as he was a wonderful husband, dad, and grandfather. I can think of so many things about Ned that makes me smile just to remember him when he laughs and when I was in grade school and he and one of the Friel's would save me a seat on the bus. Ned I have known you for 70 years and know that you are in heaven looking down on us and smiling. May God Bless all of you.
