“ Dear Fitzsimmons Family:

My deepest condolences at the passing of your dear sweet Mom.

May the love and tender mercy of God comfort you during this time of sorrow.

Matthew 5:4

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

Know you will be reunited with your Mom and Dad.....

1 Corinthians 15:52-57

In a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Know your Mom is not suffering.....

Revelation 21:4

He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

Thinking of you and praying for comfort for each of you.....

Love,

Beth

“ I am sorry to hear about Aunt Pat. Aunt Pat always had a smile on her face and was such a nice person. Growing up it was always nice to visit Aunt Pat and Uncle Bob and have fun with all my cousins.

Our thoughts are with all of you,

Glen, Linda, and all my family

“ Dear Cousins,
I'm so sorry that Aunt Pat is gone. She was so kind and gentle. I always had fun visiting her and Uncle Bob and you kids when we were all young. I've been looking at some old photos, and they bring back great memories. All my sympathy,

Gail
