“ I loved Mrs. Schrauth as my teacher in Sixth Grade. She was a giving and fair teacher and I remember her as having a good time with her students. She had almost 40 students in one classroom yet, she kept things together and was ready for laugh with all of us. Thank you Mrs. Schrauth for all your kind words. Hope you are doing well Katie.

“ My deepest sympathy in the loss of your mother. Pat was a kind, sweet woman. When I was a young teacher working at St. Anne's, she was such a wonderful mentor to me. Years later while visiting my own mother, I was blessed again to be able to sit and talk with her many times at Avonlea Cottage. She will be greatly missed. May God grant you all peace and comfort.
