“ I would like to thank Pat Jones and his mother Elizabeth for being there with me in deciding my career in funeral service. Working at the Jones Funeral Home in high school was a experience with very giving people who always listened and were family oriented. During a slow afternoon in the summer's in high school I remember listening to WGN Radio and enjoying the afternoon host's with Pat. It was a treat.

The Jones Funeral Home has buried most of my family, and will always be a part of me being in funeral service for 42 years. Funeral Home alley will not be the same as we remembered it in the 1970's between 3rd and 2nd Street and Ottawa and Crawford. It consisted of retired funeral director Frank Buckley, the Preston Funeral Home and the Jones Funeral Home. These were the "Old Day's"

PR-Well Done Good and Faithful Servant.

Our Prayers are with the Jones Family

“ Pat was a lifelong friend to me and our entire family. I always appreciated stopping at Jones Funeral Home and visiting with him when I came to Dixon. Pat knew more history of Dixon, Maytown and the Irish settlers than anyone I knew. My sincere condolences to the entire Jones family. Dennis Murphy, Beloit, Wi.

“ My very deepest sympathy and prayers for the Jones family in your loss of Patrick, Senior. I remember his kindness, and that of his family, when we lost Dad, and then our mother. I can imagine "Pat, Sr." and Mom and Dad are catching up on old times, now. (Dad was Sexton of Woodside Cemetery in Lee Center, for years; he and Mom also took care of the mowing there, during that time.) Offering my thanks for Mr. Pat's years of service, and prayers that the good memories bring comfort and peace to his family and friends. May God bless you, always.

“ *Truly sorry for your loss. I believe I have known Pat since I was about six years old. He was a great guy and good friend to our family. While not a big deal in the grand scheme he was also on the Board of Directors of my Dad's old business. May God bless Pat and provide grace to all his friends and family.
