“ Dear Marge & family,
Thank you for calling us. Tony was on the road when I told him of the sad news. He was very heart broken to hear of your loss. He loved Paul very much and always told me of his kind nature and generous heart. Tony wanted me to let you know that he felt grateful to see Paul one last time at the Mexican restaurant and talk with him awhile. Please know that you are in our prayers. My God have your beloved Paul in his care now.

“ Mary Paul and family, Please accept my deepest condolences. I had met your father (and husband) on several occasions and I thought he had remarkable strength. Mary Paul, you come from good stock!!! Your dad was very generous in support and I want the family to know how much I enjoy our herd Galloway cattle that he made possible. We still have a few of the original cows from Colorado.

*Blessings,
Tommy*

“ *Dear Marge and family;
Just heard about Paul's death and wanted to send our sincere sympathy.*

Paul and I certainly had many conversations about how to make life easier for both of us but mainly just wanting to pick one another's brain on big ideas we came up with.

The ski trips will be some memories that will never fade away as well as other fun times.

With Sympathy and love, Dean Hamilton and DB too.

“ Dear Marge and the entire Long family -

If there was anyone who lived life to the fullest, it was Paul Long. I will always remember the twinkle in his eye when he saw Lori's first Marblehead house. He loved the entrepreneurial spirit - it was one of his defining traits.

On behalf of the entire Jeka family, we send you our prayers. He was one of a kind. Lots of love - Mary Jeka

“ Dear Long Family members,

Sorry to hear of Paul's death. Based on my acquaintanceship with him when Pete was my pupil at South Central, I know he was a great husband & Dad with a ready smile and a generous heart. I know too that he took great pride in all his family members and their life achievements.

My sincerest sympathy to you all.
