“ Scott

You were definitely one of a kind. I will miss our silly funny talks and text sorry I saw this on FB a few months later. had I known I would have definitely been there on your send off.... you will always be in my heart and I will hold on to our good fun long memories and some of the junk ones lol but still you will be missed very much. Love you always

“ We lost a great man! I met Scott when he lived in San Bruno many years ago. We had always kept in touch over the years and this news was unexpected and shocking as I had just spoken to him and we were finally going to try and plan a reunion since my role at work had changed to allow for more free time. He will truly be missed by so many as he touched so many lives.
