“ I was saddened to hear of our loss of a great uncle. Distance and time make contact very difficult, but great memories of persons that we have loved will remain forever.

“ I only had the opportunity to know Ray in his later years, but what a wonderful opportunity. I would see him on a daily basis at work and I have to say, he would always keep me smiling. I loved talking to him about golf and Notre Dame. He was very funny. Outspoken? Somewhat, but that was just one fun part of him. He was a very charming gentleman and I am so glad to have known him. I will miss his wit. My prayers and sentiments go out to his family and friends at this time.
