Joyce, Chuck, and Family: I know how difficult it has been for you all in losing Ray! Death is not easy for anybody including Christians. Jesus wept when Lazarus died. If Jesus felt sorrow, how much more does He understand what we are going through. He said he would be close to the brokenhearted. He cares and you are part of a church family that loves and supports you! Remember! Just a temporary parting here on earth and someday you will be together again for eternity! HOPE!! Love, hugs, and prayers! Janet Schrock

“ I remember that he always seemed happy. I remember him laughing a lot---kinda like his sister! I remember your dedication to your family, and when you wrote a letter to the paramedics and it was printed in the local newspaper. I am so sorry for your loss. I wish you lived closer...or worked at the school I am at! It would be fun to continue our childhood friendship.

“ Joyce, You probably don't remember me but I grew up on North Stewart & attended Pleasant Lane School. My birthday was right before Raymond's in the same year. I do remember his sweet smile from when we were kids. I'm so sorry for your loss. Kim (Stern) Valgiusti
