“ I remember Raynaldo from my childhood. Even though our family was widely scattered I remember meeting him and also seeing him with his horse. My grandfather was EdwardClark, Raynaldo's brother. Sympathies from Rockford, IL.

“ I served on the Amboy-Lee Center Multi-township Board with Raynaldo for many years. He enjoyed his position as Lee Center Town Clerk and Lee Center was very fortunate to have him, He and Frank Barlow were quite the team. I always enjoyed listening to Raynaldo's stories of him and his horse. His eyes would light up whenever he talked about it and you could see how much he enjoyed and love his dear friend. We will miss him.

“ Ray was a friend of my family for many years. I always enjoyed talking with him. No matter what we talked about, we always ended up talking about horses before I left. He had some great stories about his life experiences and the way things used to be. He is at peace now with no more pain.

“ Ray was a dedicated township clerk for Lee Center Twp for over 50 years and loved and respected animals probably more than anyone I know. He was an excellent horse trainer and commented that the horse was probably smarter than the owner.
