“ Dick was truly one of a kind. He would do anything for a friend and for his family. I knew him so many years, trusted him and respected him. He never failed to remember and ask about my Sarah. I am so sorry for the loss you must feel for this precious man who left such a large footprint in our lives. I hope you find peace in your memories and know how wonderful it is for him to be reunited with his love, Jerle. Blessings to you all. Joann Sheridan
