

Richard V Trafny

July 13, 1919 - November 12, 2012

Richard V. Trafny, 93, of Dixon died Nov. 12, 2012 at home after a long life.

Richard was known as the Piano man. He worked for Howell Pipe Organ and upon retirement he tuned pianos in and around the Dixon area. He loved music and challenging himself to learning new languages. His latest was French but he was fluent in Polish, Spanish and German.

He was born in Cicero, IL to Walenty and Janina (Kraszewska) Trafny. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister Lydia.

He was a veteran of the Navy during WW II.

He married Maria Isabell Grzechnik April 18, 1980 in Dixon.

He is survived by his wife Maria Isabell, sons Allen (Susan) Trafny of Branford, CT, and Arthur Trafny of Detroit, MI, a daughter Sue (Thomas) Sherlock Reimann of Marengo, IL, grandchildren Jonathan (Annie Vina) Sherlock of Westmont, Kristy (Adam) Sharpness of Cortland, great grandchildren Colton & Josie Sharpness.

There will be a private family ceremony at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Richard V Trafny

---

October 08, 2023 at 11:30 AM

“ Richard V Trafny

---

December 31, 2022 at 02:40 AM