“ Bob was a great person. He took care of our property in woodhaven for years, what started out as a business transaction, quickly became fast friends. He was a good friend that would help out any way he could without questions or expectations! R.I.P. You will be missed!

“ Bob had a beautiful singing voice. He was also a great DJ back in the day! He enjoyed coming to my kids' sporting events, especially softball. I also remember him being my softball coach when we played league in Mendota many years ago. He will be missed.
