“ First off I would like to send my deepest sympathies to Bob's family. Secondly I know how nice it is to hear when our loved ones pass the kindness they have show to others.

When I was mid 20's heading to sterling to work on Amboy blacktop on a snowy winter morning I ended up in the ditch. Bob came along asked "where are you going?" I said work. He said I will pull you out only if you promise to go back home. I agreed. I offered to pay him, which he declined, I never knew who he was. Until some days later when he was in WG Leffelman's talking to my step dad and told him the story of pulling this young lady out the ditch. My step dad told him that he had pulled his step daughter out and again offered to pay for the assistance. He declined again. I have never forgotten how kind he was to me cold snowy day.
