“ Donna and family,

I am very sorry for the loss of your hubby, father and grandfather. It is always difficult but this time of the year makes it even harder. I can tell you that life is never the same, hopefully you do not have to make too many changes in your life. Family, friends and familiarity are important. Honor your tears and have faith that this separation is only temporary. It looks like you all loved him very much. Thanks for sharing the family pics, he seemed a very good man.

Love and blessings,

“ Donna, Joanne and family, One of my favorite memories as a child was going to the family Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. I could always count on two things: the food would be awesome and the men (my Dad, Cliff, Joe and Bob) would play Euchre after dinner. It was comforting to me to know that, while playing cards, they would solve the world's problems. :) (at least, that is what they said they were doing!) Seriously, though, Kelli and I can't be with you all for the funeral. I have to work. But, please know that we will be (and already are) praying for you all. We look at it this way: Bob did not die. He just got to go Home for Christmas. We love you all very much. Love, Scott and Kelli Melan

“ *I was very sad to hear of Bob's (Bobby's) death. He was a very kind and faithful guy. He was that way even in high school. I'll always remember his football days but especially his faithfulness to the Lord and the church. Thinking of you, Liz.
