“ My father, Eugene Doran, worked with Roscoe at Medusa. During the Korean war, there was a period when Dad was recalled to active duty and Roscoe was a great help to our family. In the Doran house, we always thought of "Uncle Roscoe" with great love and admiration.

“ Cox family,

Your dad was as fine a man as I have known! My sympathy to you all - - especially Mary, Sharon & Connie who were also friends to me. Since I've moved to WI years ago, I have missed the ringing baritone of Roscoe's voice whenever I chanced to meet/speak with him.

*I can't help but think that =- - if his illness condition did not interfere -
- how pleased Roscoe must have been with Pres.-elect Obama's nomination and I only hope Roscoe was able to be cognizant of the presidential election outcome. Mike*
