“ I met Roscoe in the mid 80s and we immediately became close friends. He was my mentor in many ways. I greatly appreciated his opinions and insights. He moved away many years ago and I have missed and will always miss him.

“Brian and Stewert...sorry to see your father passed. I didn't really know him. He graduated after I was out of HighSchool. But I sure remember you two coming and playing in our back yard and sand box. I remember once one of you said your Mom had called off work because she was sick. I had said I hope it isn't too serious. Your answer...."she's not sick....she is just sick of working"....funny that I remember that after all these years. I no longer live in Dixon but just before I moved I happened to see Richy Ashford and talked to him. I would not have known who he was if he had not talked to me. His Dad Bob Ashford and I were friends in Highschool and we walked home together up Peoria Avenue. Then of course we knew each other at the hospital and lived on the same street. Great picture of your Dad....good looking. I see that Katie Orgiesen posted your Dads obit on Facebook. Will be thinking of you and your family.
