“ I have such wonderful memories of times spent at the family farm - always lots of good food, games, and laughter. Ruth was always very welcoming and certainly knew how to raise a big family! Always fun to come visit the cousins and stay overnight. May God comfort each of you with lots of good memories and the knowledge that Ruth is now with Harland and Carol. love to all, Mary Chamberlain, osm

“ Extending my sincere sympathies at the loss of your Mother. I just learned of her passing tonight at Mass. She was a wonderful person, always with a smile on her face. She will be missed by many, but is now reunited with the loves of her life, God and Harlan.

God's blessings to all of you.

“ Our deepest condolences to the entire family. My husband, Chris, and I are the parents of Adam Jennison. Adam married one of Ruth's 37 grandchildren, Bridget Kagan. We met Ruth at their wedding. She was lovely. We promised to meet in a calmer environment so that we could get to know one another. I am sorry that I will not have that chance. We send love and sympathy from California to a wonderful family full of love.
