“ I am so sorry for your loss. Your wife, mother, and grandmother was a joy to know. She played a number of practical jokes on me over the years at the KC's and various places that still crack me up many decades later. The best was probably the time she and Barb Higgs hid in my van and jumped out when I opened the door scaring the daylight out of me late on a winters night in the KC parking lot. Sally and all of you are in our prayers. God Bless the Stover Family in this difficult time. Jack Schrauth

“ Thoughts and prayers to all of you. Sally was a very special lady full of love and fun. I was blessed to have her for a sister-in-law and friend. I will never forget all the good times we had together, one of the best vacations ever was when Sally and Bill met us in Gatlinburg and we went to Dollywood ,etc. She always filled a place with love and laughter. God Bless all of you.
