“ All of us are so sorry about Sam and Jen. We pray that you find strength to get through this, and try to remember the great times with Sam. I personally never met Sam, but I heard a lot of stories about Sam through my dad, Ron Lippens. I heard all about his love for John Deere, and how he loved things that were green. It is such a sad thing, but I know Jen is with Sam, and they will be watching over all of you. Nothing that I say will help at this time, but please know that our entire family is thinking about you.
