“ Many of you may not know who I am however my wife and I were fortunate enough to have Sean as a DJ at our wedding. I met Sean many years ago through mutual friends. He was an absolute joy to be around and pleasure to work with for our wedding. He completely lit up the room!! My wife and I still have conversation's with those who attended the wedding and still tell us it was the best wedding reception EVER! This was all because of Sean and his talent with people and how he could get them involved – He was a natural around people and will be truly missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Rock family. I am so sad to hear that such a wonderful friend has left us all. Sean will remain in so many of our hearts with fond memories. There was never a moment he wasn't friendly and thinking of others. The last time I saw him over 2 years ago we caught up right where we left off. Sean is genuine and always there to share a laugh with that contagious smile. I will always remember that smile and what a special part Sean shared in my junior high and high school years.

Much love to you all!

“ I can't think of anyone I've ever met who was more well-liked by everyone who knew him than Sean. He would do anything for anyone and was genuinely happy to do so. When I shared the news of his passing with one of my old college classmates who met him only a couple of times over twenty years ago, she said, "wasn't he the cute guy that all the girls in your class liked?". He had the rare ability to connect with people from all walks of life and for those of us who were lucky enough to have known him, I can only hope that we carry with us the example he set on how to treat other people. My deepest sympathies to the entire Rock family.

“Rocko was always so full of life and it's so sad he has been taken so young. Not only was he handsome, but he had such an outgoing personality, a kindred spirit & a heart of gold. He was the definition of a true friend. He was a friend of my brother's, and I still remember the first time I met him when he joined the break dancing class. I'm sure it was mostly to see the chicks in leotards, but he had the moves regardless LOL.

As the years passed, he was the one mainly responsible for my getting a 1st and 2nd date with my "now husband" Mike (long story). He became the groomsman in our wedding, and remained great friends to this day. He was known as "Uncle Sean" to my children, and he adored them as if they were his own niece and nephew. He could give me a run for my money in the talking department. In fact, He and I could carry on conversations like no other- ha! Mike was so quiet on the phone, I would take over sometimes and talk to him for an hour or 2 myself LOL. He had a very strong faith and wasn't afraid to tell others he loved them. I know he is in a better place, and livening things up in heaven, but damn it, I want him here! I will miss his beautiful smile, his adorable laugh, our deep conversations, and all of the fun times we had together. . RIP Sean! Fly high and bang those drums baby!

“ Joe and Carol,
I am around the same age as you are, as you well know. When I opened the funeral home's webpage, I immediately saw your son's picture and read his obituary and the condolence messages submitted. And my eyes were filled with tears. I knew that he was a DJ and was not aware of how much he served and loved all those around him and in the community in which he lived and how much so many were touched by their relationships with him.
As you know, my nephew Mike was a friend of his. I have not seen Sean in these recent years. But, whenever our paths crossed, he would always come over to me, to greet me and to say hello. Meeting him was always an enjoyable occasion. To all, he was a welcome and a greeter.
Sean left his imprint in the hearts of so many. As he brightened the lives of so many in his earthly journey, may he know the brightness of God's eternal light and glory in God's kingdom. You and all your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

Sean walked in and said....Those guys! and cringed! I tuned in, started listening and immediately turned the CD off. Sean also told me about a special brother that he had. “ So very sad to hear about Sean. I first knew him as a customer at the record store where I worked 17 or 18 years ago. We never socialized, but whenever we ran into each other, I got a great smile and usually a hug. He was a lovely person and will be missed. So sorry. Mary Ellen McNinch

“ When I moved back from Chicago to Dixon, Sean was one of the first people I came across again. I always thought of him as one of the integral parts of the city. He moved in so many social circles and was involved with everything. Sean gave back to this city. Dixon will be a lesser place without him.

“ I moved away from Dixon shortly after I graduated in 1988, but I have fond memories of being in band with Sean for a few years. He had such a talent for playing the drums. I can see from his picture that he didn't change at all. My heart goes out to you all, and I will keep you in my prayers.

See you in the stars.

Sean absolutely made our night this night, he was what made the whole thing come together and he played his DJ songs on and on.....never quit, never even thought of quitting til the groom told the bride....we GOTTA GO! His smile that was simply contagious and the words he would say each and every time we would run into each other will be forever missed in my heart. He made me feel as though I fit in no matter where we were or what we were doing, and that was the way it was all of the years that I knew him! I will truly never ever forget him, and the lessons that he could teach all of us about a "true" givers heart.

“ My most recent memory of Sean was the night he helped out at the Knights of Columbus February(Valentines Day) Steak Fry. He assisted(miss or sir take my arm) so many people to their cars that snowy Feb. night and even scraped their windshield for them. What a kind gesture on his part! But, that was him, always helping someone! Sean, you are loved and you will be missed! You are indeed, one in a million!

“ When I think of Sean I think of the compassionate man who had a D.J. Service and played MANY MANY parties for the people who live at the Jack Mabley Developmental Center. Sean always loved that gig. He spoke of how good it made him feel to see those folks from the Mabley Center dancing and singing while having the time of their lives." No one ever complains" he said. They didn't care what music you played they just wanted to have fun, and he found much joy in providing that fun for them. He loved that the folks there knew his name and wanted to shake his hand and hug him!! He had a heart to want to please others. He brought more joy to the people who live at the Mabley Center then he would ever know. He will be much missed by many. condolences to the family, many prayers are being send your way. May God wrap his loving and supporting arms around you during this very very difficult time.

“ Sean was the DJ for my wedding reception, as he was for many, many others. He is in a lot of photo albums. He was the guy you wanted for special occasions, there really was no other. Quick with a smile and a laugh. He knew when someone needed kind words spoken to them and he spoke them, unselfishly. He just understood. Sean helped so many people in so many ways, often at his own expense. The world was a better place with Sean in it.
