“ Very sorry to hear the news concerning Sherry. I've known her for almost 19 years as I worked with her at Fifth Third before she starting working at US Bank. What a beautiful person inside and out!
The last time I saw her a few years ago was at Farm Fleet in Sterling and she came up to me and gave me a big hug and we had a wonderful chat to catch up. My time flies by...

*Thoughts and Prayers are with Sherry and her family.
God Bless,

“ To all of Sherry’s family, I just want to express my deepest sympathy for your tragic loss. I know this is heart breaking. At breakfast this morning, my brother Tom (he’s mentally retarded), without any prompting from me, started talking about Sherry. He remembered playing Wii bowling with her last year at Christmastime; he recounted a story about the first time he met Sherry and (puppy) Cooper. So she touched lives as far away as Sidney OH!

“ Prayers to all of you. It was clear that Sherry loved her husband, kids, and grandkids more than anything. I hope your happy memories with her can bring you peace and comfort during this difficult time.
