“ Suzanne was one of my best friends growing up and all thru high-school. OH the trouble we got into. We had so much fun together. I spent a lot of time at their house and sat with the family for a lot of dinners. We even fought once over a guy but we got past it and our friendship continued.

Of course over the years we both had moved to different states but we managed to get in touch a few times over the years and updated each other on what was going on in our lives.

My heartfelt condolences to her family. Suzanne will be missed by so many of us. Rest easy my friend.
