“ Sylvia was the most wonderful aunt. We bubbled with delight when we knew she was going to visit. She was so much fun and always a joy to be around. She was warm-hearted and generous and always had wonderful things to tell us, like how much she loved the blue sky in Colorado. A ray of sunshine herself, we will miss her. ”

“ Miss Montavon was my 4th grade teacher at St. Mary's School in Sterling. At a time when many teachers were older nuns, she was a young woman who wore cool clothes and was energetic and inspiring. As an adult, I too became a teacher and worked at public and parochial schools in the US and in international schools in Berlin and Dhahran, Saudi Arabia.

Via this obituary, I learned that not only was Miss Montavon a teacher but a real civic leader.

Sympathy to the family and peace to Miss Montavon as she joins the Communion of Saints with our Lord.

“ Treasured memories from throughout my life, whether gathering eggs with her on the farm, watching her and her mom cooking on a wood-burning stove, attending family reunions through the years, or much more recently (pre-Covid) visiting with her in Dixon after I attended various Galena Trail meetings. Also recall her organizing a trip from Dixon to Peoria to see Mark Grace as manager of the Cubs affiliate here. She had brought lots of things for him to autograph for charitable auctions in Dixon. Go Cubs!

“ What a lovely person Sylvia was! Always helping everyone, just as God meant us to do! Rest now in peace.

Fay Faivre Obergfell - November 06, 2023 at 08:31 AM

“ Sylvia was special. She was so very thoughtful and would send hand written notes expressing recognition of accomplishments or service. They meant so much when received.
