

Terry A Moline

August 11, 1946 - August 10, 2013

Terry A. Moline, 66, of Dixon passed away Friday, August 9, 2013 at his home. Terry was born August 11, 1946 in Dixon to Clive and Irene (Johnson) Moline. Terry served in the Army from 1968-74 in an engineering unit, where he was a lead for his unit. He was an engineer for many years at Louis/Allis/Magnatek in New Berlin WI.

Terry was a fantastic neighbor to many friends in Dixon and loved working in his yard. He was a huge race fan, any kind of racing. He enjoyed visits with his family, and until recently took care of his mother, Irene, who passed away June 2013.

He is survived by his daughter, Anneka Moline Lueth, granddaughter Aidan and grandson Graham Lueth.

Cremation rites have been accorded. There will be no visitation or services. Burial of Cremains will be at a later date in Oakwood Cemetery in Dixon. Arrangements by the Jones Funeral Home.

“ I did not know Terry, but I served with a US Navy doctor during the Vietnam War by the name of Daniel Moline. He currently lives in Grants Pass, Oregon.

Just wondering if Terry and he are related. Doctor Moline would be about 68-69 by now.

*Thank you,
