“ Theresa was my loving grandma.. I would always go to the nursing home and visit her. She would have a smile on her face and say "Hey Honey". that instantly made me smile and happy. Grandma Theresa was an amazing woman and she made everyone smile and made the room light up with her contagious laughter and smiles. She would always joke around with everyone. One of my absolute fav things grandma would do is grab my hand and we would hold hands and I would tell her I love you so many times. I got to feed her a lot of times at the nursing home and I am forever grateful that I got to feed her and spend time with her. She was also a very sassy woman at times but I always loved her and spent time with her when I could. Goodness I miss her so much and I wish I could bring her back because now she won't be able to see her granddaughter (me) graduate high school. I love and miss you Grandma Theresa Yingling.
