“ Tommy had moved out by the time I started hanging out on Depot St. Nonetheless, he was still a regular in the rich cast of characters at the Bungalow. We could match anything Mark Twain came up with - Today's Tom Sawyers. Great memories!

Danny, Terry, Colleen - Hope you are well.

“ Tom sure was a fun kid to run with in the mid to late 70's. Snow sledding, summer bike rides all over town and building a tree house with him. Shooting rats at the Co-op in Cement town with our BB guns and borrowing playboys and Hustler magazines from Dick Shoe makers trucks but always returned them. Walking to School discussing the new Bicentennial Quarter 1776-1976. So many other fun things as I was the 12th Cleary kid those years.
