“ I will always remember Timmy with a smile on my face. His rapier wit and larger than life smile will be a cherished memory for me, always. While we weren't in touch often, I think of him often. I will remember him as a warm, caring person who made me laugh no matter how bad I felt. I can hear his laughter in my ear and will think of him whenever I feel sad because I know he would tell me a joke of make a funny face so I could feel better. The world is a sader place without him. I truly am glad to have known him.
