“Helen Ann and I were first cousins. And while I haven't lived in Illinois during my adult life, I would occasionally cross paths with Urban and Helen Ann either at my parent's house as they would often visit them the later years of their life, or more recently, at the occasional Bushman family reunion that I return home to attend. I will truly miss my conversations with Urban. After reading his obituary, I now realize how he was so knowledgeable in so many areas when we had time to chat. I always left learning something from him and was so impressed just how kind of a person he was. Urban will be greatly missed by all of us who knew him. My condolences and prayers go out to Urban's family and friends.
