

Vivian Cicchetti

November 19, 1931 - March 13, 2010

Vivian Cicchetti formerly of Amboy has died. Today our mother, sister, grandmother, great-grandmother, our friend begins a new journey. One we believe will offer her the serenity she so deserves. Today, March 14, 2010 she leaves this world to join those she loves who passed before her. Her husband John Cicchetti Sr. who died March 29, 2005, her mother and father Clinton Quick Sr. and Helen M (Whalen) Quick. Waiting for her also is a brother, Clinton Quick Jr. and a sister, Edith (Quick) Schober. Vivian was born November 19, 1931. She married John Cicchetti Sr. in 1948. With a loving heart and the gentlest of touch she nurtured six children who were at her side as she drew her last breath. Surviving her and missing her so are those six children; Pearlann (Anthony) Adduci, Jefferson City Mo., Colette Baker, Belvidere IL, John (Nancy) Cicchetti Jr. Sublette, IL, Joe (Paula) Cicchetti, Amboy, IL, James Cicchetti, Amboy, IL Tamara (Michael) LaBombard-Worobec Rockford, IL. , Brother Richard (Edith) Quick, Waynesville, Mo. , 20 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren, countless nieces and nephews and many close friends. Vivian worked in the hospitality industry operating, with her family, a campground (Pleasure Acres) for many years and working at a few eateries in Amboy and Dixon. For Vivian who beat the odds so many times against so many illnesses we celebrate her life free of sickness beginning Tuesday March 16 with a visitation from 4-7 pm at Mihm Jones Funeral Home 303 E. Main St. , Amboy, IL and Mass on Wednesday March 17, 10:30 am at St. Patrick Catholic Parish, in Amboy, IL with the Rev.

David Vogel, officiating. Cremation rites will follow.

“ *To Ms. Vi Cicchetti Family:
I remember your Mom from the Cafe and what a wonderful person, caring mother and wife, She loved her grand children dearly. I loved her cooking out at the camp ground yrs after she left the Cafe my Grandmother and Mom ran. She will be missed by many, I will keep you all in my prayers.
Blessings,
