“ Harriet, Johanna and I thank God for Bill's life and extend our deepest sympathy to you. I'll never forget the huge bags of popcorn he would pop and provide for the youth of the church to enjoy for retreats and other special events. His kindness blessed us all in so many ways. May the Lord continue to comfort and sustain you. - Pastor Frank Berman

“ Kim, I first met you when my uncle worked at the Purity Mills. My uncle was friends with your dad. My uncle would come and see your dad and I would be with him. We would play while they would talk work. We were very young then but I always thought your mom and dad were very wonderful people. Your dad will be enjoying your great picture from heaven now. You and your family will be in my prayers.

“ Dearest Kimberly,
We don't understand at times, when the, Good Lord calls our Loved ones home.
We cannot help to feel life's losses.
But, He does leave a special gift in exchange...Memories...
May happy memories of your Dad carry you through this sorrowful time.
Wishing you & your Family strength & peace.
You are all in my thoughts & prayers.
My sweet Kim, may Angels walk with you today & always.

“ From the east coast, Brooklyn, NY, to be exact, I will keep Kim, her mom, and William's family in my thoughts and prayers during this emotionally challenging time. Unfortunately, I only met William once, but throughout the 25 years of knowing Kim, she has shared stories of her dad's loving, generous nature.

I pray that William was met with open arms by his loved ones on the other side as he departed this physical world. And it is my hope that God will give all William's loved ones strength and bring forth to mind many vivid, loving memories of joyful times to remember him by to get through the days ahead.

With deepest condolences,
