“ Bill was truly a good neighbor and a good friend. We stood many times at my fence and talked about the good times, the weather and the activities he had planned for the day like mowing his lawn or going for a walk. He was truly a peaceful man and he will be missed

“ Bill was kind, gentle and put others first. He was considered and thoughtful. I worked with him when I was in college and we had an easy friendship talking of so many things. He always offered advice and encouragement as I pushed through rough times and sudden passing of my grandpa. He will be greatly missed.
