“ My memory of this wonderful woman was that she and her husband were two of the nicest people I had ever known.

“ I will miss Yvonne so much! She has been our neighbor and friend for my whole life, living across the street, always there with a kind word, a helping hot dish of food, and a joke to lift our hearts! She was very close to my mother and father, Rosanne and Dr. Don Edwards, and was a huge help to them over the many years of friendship. One of my favorite memories was when Yvonne helped cut hundreds of fabric ribbons for the May Pole Ribbon Tree for my sister, Cathe and Bruce Hill's wedding.
